

Kseibi Welding Mask WHP050

Straightforward Protection for Everyday Welding

Kseibi · 382040

Highlights

- Black plastic construction for everyday workshop use
- Black lens designed for welding applications
- Full-face shield style helps cover face and neck area
- Large front shell offers broad protective coverage
- Traditional welding mask design for straightforward use
- Side adjustment points visible for secure positioning
- Suitable for fabrication, repair, and maintenance work
- Simple, durable build with a professional black finish
- Focused viewing window helps target the weld area
- A practical option for general-purpose welding tasks

Key Features

- Black Plastic Body — Constructed from black plastic for a durable, practical build suited to regular workshop handling.
- Black Lens — Fitted with a black lens for welding use, helping provide the shaded viewing area needed at the work zone.
- Full-Face Coverage — The extended shell shape helps cover the front of the face and surrounding exposed areas during welding tasks.
- Traditional Shield Design — A straightforward welding mask format that is easy to recognize, use, and keep ready for routine jobs.
- Workshop-Ready Fit — Visible side adjustment points support stable positioning for more confident use while working.

Specifications

Branding KSEIBI

Specifications by Variant

Specification	382040
Material	Black plastic
Feature	Black Lens